WSP

WSP traces its origins back over 130 years, to 1885, when William Barclay Parsons founded the company that would become Parsons Brinckerhoff in New York City. The firm has a renowned transportation history, having worked on many of the major transit systems in the U.S., such as San Francisco, Atlanta, Los Angeles, Salt Lake City and Seattle.

Today, WSP is one of the largest professional services firms in the world, with approximately 36,000 employees in 500 offices serving in 40 countries, and is a leading consulting engineer for the transportation industry.
